He Is Said to Have Lived Lav-· ishly at Old Point as "Colonel Wright."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NEWPORT NEWS, VA., June 22.-Frederick Foster, believed to be a lunatic or crook, who is held in jail be the mysterious "Colonel" Edward Chamberlin Hotel last week, and after several days, was put out of the hotel for flashing bogus checks. It also the went to Hampton and attempted get a license from the Elizabeth City county clerk of courts to marry a woman whose name he gave as Laura Eva Summers, of Boston, and with whom he had been stopping at the Chamberlin, registering as "Col. E. M. Wright and wife." When the clerk refused to issue the license because Foster, calling himself Colonel Wright, of the artillery corps, offered a check

Foster, calling himself Colonel Wright, of the artillery corps, offered a check in payment, the man called upon two prominent lawyers of Hampton and consulted them in regard to bringing suit against the official.

After calling upon a dentist and giving him an alleged worthless check in payment for services, Foster returned to Old Point. One day last week he and the woman left Old Point, and nothing more was heard of them until Foster was jailed here for giving worthless checks to a physician for hospital service.

Foster was failed here for giving worthless checks to a physician for hospital service.

Forter is an elegantity dressed man, about forty years old and claims to be a member of a prominent Connecticut family. He is a graduate of Washington and Lee University, this fact having been established by the police through an alumnus of the university. He told Chief of Police Reynolds when arrested that he represented two popular monthly magazines, but when the chief communicated with the publishing communicated with the publishing companies he was informed that they had never heard of the prisonner. The stubs in a check book of the Sixth National Bank, of Philadelphia, show that Foster has written checks for amounts ranging from $10 to $11,000.

The bank mentioned has been communicated with, and its officials know nothing of Foster.

Foster will be held here until the doctors decide whether or not he is insan, and until other cities can be heard from.

LID WILL BE CLAMPED DOWN AT OCEAN VIEW

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

NORFOLK, VA., June 22.—Unless all signs fail, there is going to be a lively time in the Norfolk county Circuit Court, over the alleged fact that intoxicants were sold last Sunday at Ovean View resort. It is understood that Judge White feels that promises have been violated that were made him in the issuance of licenses, and that he proposes to put the lid on good and tight.

Police Chief Dozler, of Virginia Beach, was also before the court this morning, in private conference, in reference to the alleged sale of whiskey at this resort Sunday. It is understood that several warrants are to be issued and that the lid down there is to be religiously sit upon and held down in future. Judge White is on record as opposed to these Sunday violations, and will use every effort to have the matter rectified.

BIG STONE GAP. VA., June 22.—For the site of the 4100,009 Federal building, which the Sixtleth Congress authorized to be erected here, the government has accepted title to and paid $6,000 for four lots owned jointly by James W. Fox. of New York, and Dr. Roland B. Whitridge, of Baltimore, fronting 132 feet on East Fourth Street and 132 feet on East Fourth Street across the street from the building in which the Federal court is now held. The site is a convenient one, being centrally located and near the hotels and business houses. The supervising architect of the Treasury Department will shortly prepare plans for the building, the government not permitting this work to be begun until title to the site is vested in it, and it is probable that work will be commenced before the end of the year.

other Speakers.

Other speakers on the same topic were Professor, Ormond Stone, of the University of Virginia; P. S. Barnes, of Danville; W. B. Cogsin, recently elected superintendent of schools for New Kent and Charles City, and James G. Johnson, the, newly-elected superintendent of the Charlottesville public schools.

Other papers read at the morning session were: "Elections of Studies in the High School Course," by J. Lincian, of Wakefield, and "How to Increase the Equipment in the High School Course," by J. Lincians and Laboratories," by J. Algar Woolfolk, of Courtland, and M. T. McClure, of Louisa.

At the afternoon session of the association, beginning at 3 o'clock, Professon J. Carter Walker, of Woodberry Forest School, Orange, spoke to men only on the moral training of boys, his subject being "The Moral Welfare of Students in the Secondary Schools."

The only other subject discussed in the afternoon was "The Necessity for Regular Medical and Sanitary Supervision in the Public Schools." The only other subject discussed in the afternoon was "The Necessity for Regular Medical and Sanitary Supervision in the Public Schools." The only other subject discussed in the afternoon was "The Necessity for Regular Medical and Sanitary Supervision in the Public Schools." The principal papers were read by School Examiner Charles G. Maphis, of Charled Of Richmond.

The night session was given over to a lecture on "Problems on Virginia" to the very eve of battle. Many public meetings have been held by the ministers and prominent citizens of the town, and they will be continued all week.

Among the cout-of-town speakers who have been laboring here are Mr. McAlister, field secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, Mr. Taylor, field secretary of southwest Virginia, and the Rev. R. J. Dogan, of Roanoka.

Mr. Smith Makes Plain Statements to Voters of Richmond

Being unable to see you in person or secure your names from the voting list in time to write you, I take this means of respectfully soliciting your vote and induence in behalf of my re-election to the office of City Sergeant, a position the duties of which I have faithfully and ferriessly performed, and can continue to do so equally as well, if not better, than any other candidate seeking your right of suffrage.

One candidate in retiring from the race has seen fit to generally allege that I have been decilent, the duties of this position, as most of you know, consist of caring for, feeding and clothing all prisoners confined in the fail, attending all sessions of the Hustings Court and executing all of its orders and those of the Commonwealth's Attorney, such as summoning all witnesses and jurors, conducting prisoners to and from the jail, etc.

While on an average from 150 to 200 prisoners are confined in the jail, I can positively assert that it is kept as sanitary as any, and there has never been any sickness of consequence, and certainly no epidemic of any kind during my administration, although it is well known that most of the inmates come from the lowest elements and most unhealthy surroundings. As proof of this I can refer to Dr. W. S. Gordon, physician in charge of the jail, and to the Jail Commissioners. Religious services and every uplifting influence is freely afforded all prisoners.

My faithful and efficient deputies—J. M. Macon, Thomas D. Neal, Jf., Pat Bowls, John J. Finegan, E. S. Ferneyhough, Llewellyn Nance, R. Seddon Chilidress, Ed. L. Lee and Charles M. (Buck) Johnson—have satisfactorily executed every order given them by the Judge or other court officials, and I am justified in saying that there has not been any miscarriage of justice due to our failure to perform the duties incumbent on us. The Hon, S. B. Wilt, Judge, and the Hon, D. C. Richardson, former Commonwealth's Attorney, and the Hon, Minitree Folkes, Commonwealth's Attorney, will substantiate this, and I refer you to them.

Prominent Speakers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HAMPTON, VA., June 22.—The second day's session of the Virginia Baptist encampment at Buckroe Beach to-day was devoted to excellent addresses, white in the afternoon the 500 delegates here devoted their time to bathing and other pleasures.

This morning Dr. T. S. Ray talked on "Missions". Dr. M. R. Culon discussed the "Basis and the Beginning of Revelations," and Dr. I. J. Vanness made an able talk on "Baptist Principles, Spirit and Purposes." The morning services closed with a fine talk on "The Miracle of Jesus as Narrated in Luke." by Dr. A. T. Robertson.

To-night the encampment was addressed by Dr. Ray, who spoke on "The B. Y. P. U., a Training School for Church Activity." The group conferences for Suaday school workers among the Baptists are proving instructive features of the encampment. Richmond sends down a big delegation on the excursion trains each day, It is expected that to-morrow and Thursday will prove the banner days of the week's encampment,

BANK AT CHARLOTTE HAS CLOSED ITS DOORS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

KEYSVILLE, VA., June 22.—The Charlotte Banking and Insurance Company, of Charlotte Courthouse, closed its doors yesterday and made a deed of assignment, with Samuel C. Daniel as trustee. It was a great surprise to friends of the bank, who had always looked upon it as one of the safest private banks in the country. It is difficult to learn the particulars, as everything has been kept very quiet and no statement has been made. It is generally believed that the liabilities will amount to about $100,000; assets not known. Farmers in the upper end of the county and adjagent to the Courthouse were depositors.

People of Alexandria County Greatly Dissatisfied Over Appointment of Hodges.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 22.—The appointment of Captain William H. Sweeney as superintendent of the schools here meets with general satisfaction. Captain Sweeney is an experienced teacher, and is regarded as fully qualified for the position, Considerable dissatisfaction, however, exists in Alexandria county over the appointment of W. T. Hodges, of Danville. While the county people do not know Professor Hodges, they claim that they had competent men in the county fully qualified and capable. In every manner of holding down the position, and that four from the county were applicants, but were completely ignored by the State Board. It is generally believed that the county neople will petition the board to rescind its action and name a local man for the place. the place.
Among those strong in support of a county man securing the position is Commonwealth's Attorney Crandall

EVIDENCE OF GAMBLING.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, VA., June 22.—The testimony given by Rev. Charles D. Builla, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, that gambling existed here, evidently did not avail much before the jury, as it this morning, before adjourning, in a report submitted to the court, said it had carefully investigated the charge that gambling houses were maintained here, but owing to insufficient evidence no action was possible.

The jury bafore adjourning indicted James Lucas, a negro, for the murder of Samuel Blakey, also a negro, and Lucas's trial was fixed for July 13 next.
